ELDERHOSTEL

ABUNDANT LIFE ELDERHOSTEL

May 25, 1999

Dear Elderhosteler,

Your registration for the Abundant Life Elderhostel, August 1, 1999 as been received. We are pleased that you will be our guest(s) and hope that your visit to Independence, Missouri, is an enjoyable educational experience. Our courses this week feature Presidential Libraries and Homes taught by Dr. George Curtis, retired assistant director of the Truman Library; and Kansas City Jazz including a visit to the Jazz Museum and an evening hearing live jazz. Leonard Brown, instructor, grew up in Kansas City and was acquainted with Count Basie and other well-known jazz musicians.

Arrival, Check-in, and Check-out

The enclosed map of the historical area where this Elderhostel is held will assist you in locating the Olive Branch Inn, and other buildings. Check-in for all Hostelers will be at the Olive Branch Inn, 200 N. Delaware Street, after 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 16. You will receive your room assignment at that time. You probably will not have any balance of fees to pay unless you have requested a single room. The single room supplement is $72 and may be paid by personal check, traveler's check, major credit card, or cash when you check-in.

Checkout will be after breakfast on Saturday. You will be expected to pay for any personal expenses charged to your room at that time. Saturday morning is set aside for enjoying the company of new friends for the last time. Some Hostlers leave right after breakfast. Others linger until approximately 10:00 a.m. Checkout time is 11:00 a.m.

Housing

Hostelers are housed at the Olive Branch Inn, a beautiful retrofit of an office building, completed in 1994. Each room has a private bath. This building is indicated on the map with a red dot and is across from #13 (Truman Home). You may arrange to stay at the inn prior to or after the Elderhostel session for the special group rate of $40 per night for a double and $32 for a single. Breakfast is included. For reservations, call (816) 836-0292. The Olive Branch Inn is smoke- and alcohol-free.
